After a hearty breakfast at your Hotel, you can enjoy a dramatic drive to Pokhara in one of our plush AC vehicles. Most travellers rush the journey between Katmandu and Pokhara, missing out on some of Nepal's hidden treasures. The hills that flank the 206km Prithvi Highway contain some of the most important religious sites in Nepal. We strongly recommend taking a leisurely drive from Katmandu and Pokhara to see more of this interesting and unspoiled region. The highway follows a series of deep river valleys, passing ancient stone villages, cascading rice terraces, rocky gorges and roaring rapids crossed by precarious suspension bridges. The drive will take you along Manakamana temple, one of the oldest temples in central Nepal and an important destination for Hindu pilgrims. Stop at Riverside resort for lunch (on your own). Enjoy the lunch and the sights and sound of the Trishuli river rushing besides you. Upon arrival in Pokhara, transfer to hotel.
